

1st International Fluid Academy Day

November 19, 2011, Elzenveld Congress and Convention Centre, Antwerp, Belgium

PROGRAM AT A GLANCE

8:00 - 9:00 Registration

PART 1: MORNING SESSIONS

SESSION 1: Give Fluids? Make it Choice, not Chance

Chair: Rainer Gatz and Peter Rogiers

9:00 Introduction and basic concepts of fluid therapy
Niels Van Regenmortel

9:20 Stewart says: saline sucks! The trouble with hyperchloremic metabolic acidosis
Paul Elbers

9:40 The clash of the titans: crystalloids versus colloids?
Eric Hoste

10:00 Some colloids are more equal than others: does our choice matter?
Sibylle Kozek-Langenecker

10:20 Discussion

10:35 - 11:00 Coffee Break

SESSION 2: Give Fluids? Make it Choice, not Chance

Chair: Eric Hoste and Philippe Jorens

11:00 The hypertonics: lessons from massive fluid administration for small volume therapy
Dirk Himpe

11:20 Hero or has-been: is there still a place for albumin?
Julia Wendon

11:40 Pushing the boundaries: what's beyond the final frontier?
Can Ince

12:00 Discussion

12:15 - 13:10 Lunch Break

PART 2: AFTERNOON SESSIONS

SESSION 3: Give Fluids? Avoid Floods

Chair: Julia Wendon and Alexander Wilmer

- 13:10 Fluid overload: poor cosmetics or bad medicine?
Manu Malbrain
- 13:30 Assessment of fluid therapy: use the right tool for the right job!
Xavier Monnet
- 13:50 Perioperative fluid optimisation: from gut feeling to closed loops
Frederic Michard
- 14:10 Frank Starling revisited: the importance of fluid responsiveness
Jean-Louis Vincent
- 14:30 The search for the Holy Grail continues: is there a place for lactate?
Jan Bakker
- 14:50 Discussion
- 15:05 - 15:30 Coffee Break

SESSION 4: Give Fluids? Avoid Floods

Chair: Jean-Louis Vincent and Azriel Perel

- 15:30 Dry lungs are happy, but a dry liver is deadly: how can dye-dilution help us?
Michael Bauer
- 15:50 Techniques for the future: continuity versus accuracy?
Azriel Perel
- 16:10 Putting it into practice: an interactive discussion...
The Faculty
- 16:45 Closing remarks: wrap it up!
Manu Malbrain
- 17:00 End of meeting